

REMARKS

By the foregoing amendments, the specification and claims have been amended so as to put the present application in better condition for examination. These amendments do not constitute new matter and, therefore, applicant's attorney respectfully requests their entry herein.

No fees are believed to be due in connection with the submission of this Amendment. If there are any fees due as a result of this Preliminary Amendment, including extension and petition fees, the Examiner is authorized to charge them to Deposit Account No. 501402.

Respectfully Submitted,

McCarter & English
